

- 5. Status Conference. Status conferences will be held on: March 2, 2020 at 3:30 PM
May 27, 2020 at 3:10 PM

6. Expert Discovery.

Any party seeking to call an expert witness at trial shall file a notice with the Court to that effect, disclosing the anticipated subject matter of the testimony in general terms, on or before May 10, 2020.

7. Dispositive Motions.

- a. Dispositive motions, such as motions for summary judgment or partial summary judgment and motions for judgment on the pleadings, must be filed by July 10, 2020.
 - b. Oppositions to dispositive motions must be filed within 21 days after filing of the motion. Replies shall be filed within 7 days of the filing of the opposition.
- 8. Initial and Pretrial Conferences. The initial pretrial conference will be scheduled at a later point in the proceedings. The parties must prepare and submit a pretrial memorandum in accordance with Local Rule 16.5(d) five business days prior to the date of the conference, except that the parties need not include matters required by Local Rule 16.5(d)(2) or (3). The trial date will normally be set at the initial pretrial conference. A final pretrial conference will be scheduled at the time the trial date is set. The court may also schedule interim pretrial conferences in appropriate cases.

Procedural Provisions

1. Extension of Deadlines. Motions to extend or modify deadlines will be granted only for good cause shown. All motions to extend shall contain a brief statement of the reasons for the request; a summary of the discovery, if any, that remains to be taken; and a specific date when the requesting party expects to complete the additional discovery, join other parties, amend the pleadings, or file a motion.
2. Motions to Compel or Prevent Discovery. Except for good cause shown, motions to compel discovery, motions for protective orders, motions to quash, motions to strike discovery responses, and similar motions must be filed no later than the close of fact discovery or the close of expert discovery, whichever deadline is relevant. If additional discovery is compelled by the court after the relevant deadline has passed, the court may enter such additional orders relating to discovery as may be appropriate.
3. Reply Memoranda. Parties need not seek leave of court to file a reply memorandum in response to an opposition to any motion, provided that such a reply memorandum does not exceed twelve pages, double-spaced, and is filed within seven days (excluding intermediate Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays) after service of the opposition memorandum. Parties may otherwise file reply or surreply memoranda only with leave of court. When such leave is sought, the moving party may file a proposed reply or surreply memorandum with the motion for leave.

4. Status Conferences. The court has scheduled a status conference after (or close to) the close of fact discovery for case management purposes. Any party who reasonably believes that a status conference will assist in the management or resolution of the case may request one from the court upon reasonable notice to opposing counsel.
5. Additional Conferences. Upon request of counsel, or at the court's own initiative, additional case-management or status conferences may be scheduled. Parties may request telephonic conferences where appropriate to avoid undue inconvenience or expense.
6. Early Resolution of Issues. The court recognizes that, in some cases, resolution of one or more preliminary issues may remove a significant impediment to settlement or otherwise expedite resolution of the case. Counsel are encouraged to identify any such issues and to make appropriate motions at an early stage in the litigation.
7. Attendance of Lead Counsel at Pretrial Conferences. Lead trial counsel are required to attend the initial and final pretrial conferences, and any interim pretrial conferences scheduled by the court. Other conferences may be handled by any counsel who is appropriately prepared.
